Saved
by Buddy :-?!

The smiling faces of years gone by reveal the promise of youth
from their numbered pages.
Some may spark the remembrance
of events long past.
We remember the awkward feel
of a bulky school ring
as we slipped it on our finger
for the first time.
Or we remember the anticipation
of Christmas recess,
our dread of midterms,
and the warmth of the sun on the hill
on the first spring day.
But most of all we remember the friendships
and the special meaning they had for us.
And we say, "Thanks for the memories."

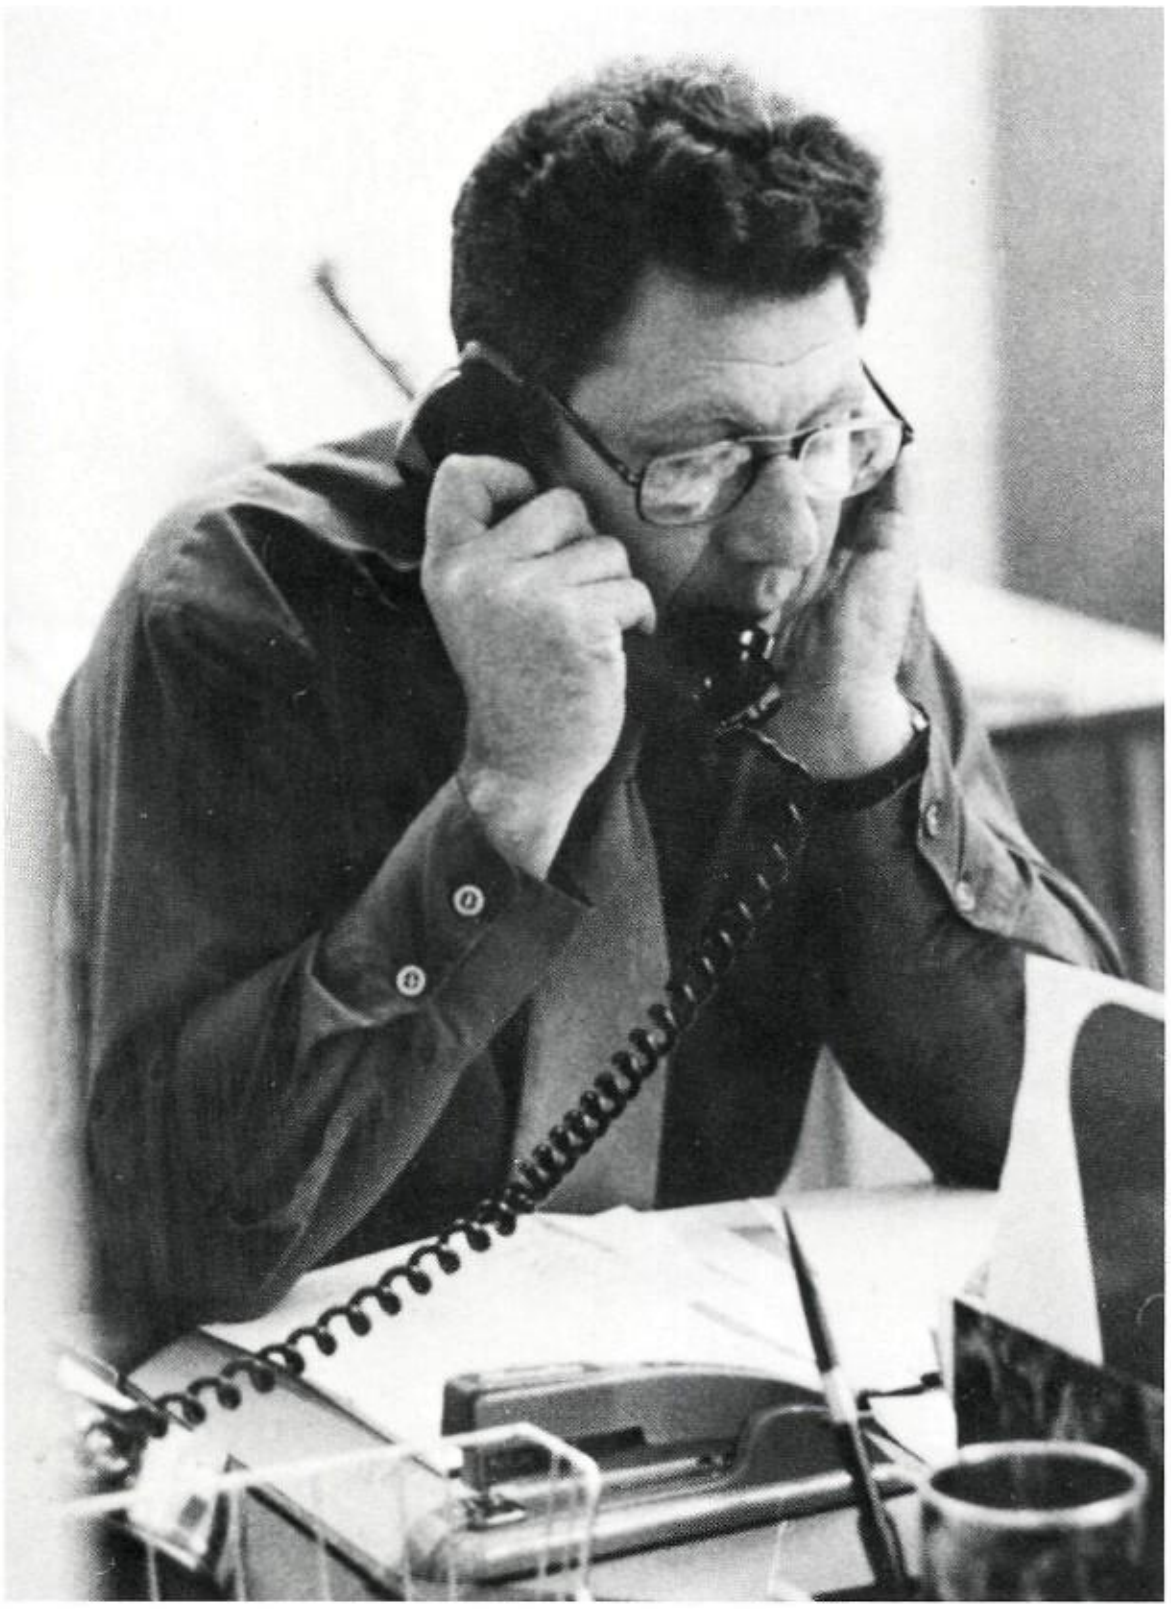
DEDICATION



We dedicate this book to John Sarkissian for his many years of service to the student body as Dean of Men, G.O. Advisor and football coach.

John Sarkissian's concern and understanding for the students is a great asset to this school. He possesses a personality and sense of humor which can not be matched by any other person.

Thanks Sark.

Now voyager depart, (much, much for thee is yet in store)
Often enough hast thou adventur'd o'er the seas, Cautiously cruising, studying the charts,
Duly again to port and hawser's tie returning;
But now obey thy cherished secret wish,
Embrace thy friends, leave all in order,
To port and hawser's tie no more returning,
Depart upon thy endless cruise ...

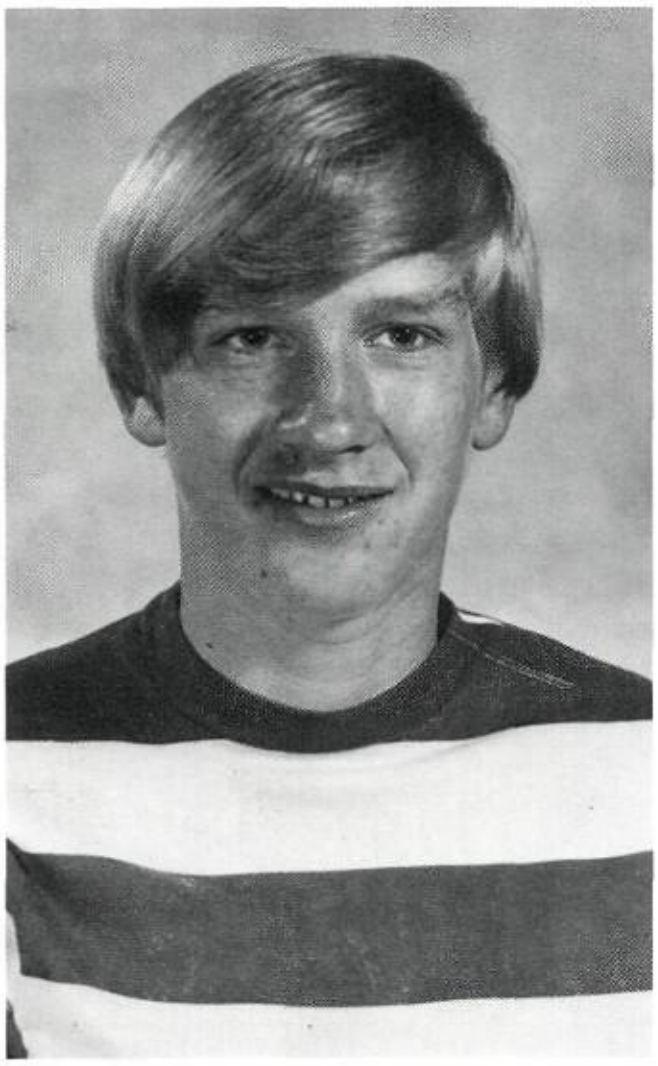
IN MEMORIAM



Jeff Travis

Gary Kantor

The passing of someone we know is always tragic, but much more tragic is the passing of those so young who had so much to give.

Cindy,
Good Luck
always!! Have a good summer.. Always remember the fun we had in Machell's class 1st period.
Good luck!!
Love Patty

Cindy,

I'll always remember
the time you took
to listen to all my problems, and how
you've helped me
through some pretty rough time. I hope that you find happiness
and fun in all that you do. Keep Smiling :).

your friend and
Sister
Penny

Dear Cindy

I hope you (luck)
have luke in the future even though (though)
it won't be good
with me as your
next door neighbor.

Love
John

Cindy,

When you get married
and things get rough,
don't be upset
just show him your ~~stuff~~ stuff.

P.S. - I'm ~~sure~~ sure you've got a lot to show, Love always, Ricky

Good one
Cindy

Buddy McMahon

Cindy,
To a good friend
your more a sister
than a friend to me
I hoped all your dreams
and wishes come true.
Have a nice Summer.
